My dear sir,

One Miss Mary Bai who is in charge of the Widows' Home at Doddballapur is seeking for help from Government for i Constructing a building for Widows and orphans

& ii purchasing sewing machines and tools required for industries such as tape-weaving spinning wheel &c

Before considering her request, Government will be glad to have an idea of the kind of work - Educational or otherwise - turned out in the Institution and the extent of the financial help received by it either from the Government or the public I am accordingly to request you to furnish a report in the matter together with your opinion on the merits of the application

Yours sincerely,

To,

M Shama Rao, Esq M A

Letter No 399 dated 12th December 1913 from the Deputy Inspector of Schools Bangalore District to the Inspector General of Education in Mysore Bangalore

With reference to your D O letter No 525 of the 4th December 1913 I have the honour to submit the following report for your kind perusal -

I visited the "Hepzibat" Home kept by Miss Mary Bai at Dod-ballapur on the morning of the 9th instant It was started in June 1912, There are now 19 women and 7 children five of them being orphans Five of the women belong to this province The rest are from the North Telugu and Mahrata contries The work done by the inmates is the following -

(1) Gardening and other Agricultural Work & domestic duties of the Home
(2) Sewing and knitting and crochet work
(3) Drawn thread work and (4) Embroidary

Four of the inmates read and wrote to dictation from St Luke in Telugu and Kannada and did simple subtraction, of numbers ~~xxx~~ of six figures They sang Kindergarten and other songs The children sang action songs well

The Home has no organization such as a Managing Committee From start up to date it has been managed by Miss Mary Bai There is no fixed income The Home is dependent upon Faith i e

Public

Public Christian Charity Occasionally the Home renders some medical aid to the neighbonring villagers It has not been doing much Educational Work
